James 4:13-15

A black and white photograph of two hands, palms facing up, completely covered in dark, thick mud. The hands are positioned in the lower half of the frame, with the fingers spread. The background is a blurred, natural setting, possibly a forest or a field with trees and foliage. The overall mood is one of being soiled or in need of cleansing.

13 Now listen, you who say, “Today or tomorrow we will go to this or that city, spend a year there, carry on business and make money.” 14 Why, you do not even know what will happen tomorrow.

13 Now listen, you who say, “Today or tomorrow we will go to this or that city, spend a year there, carry on business and make money.” 14 Why, you do not even know what will happen tomorrow. What is your life? You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes.

The background is a soft, out-of-focus natural setting, possibly a field or forest floor. The overall mood is one of hardship or the passage of time.

13 Now listen, you who say, “Today or tomorrow we will go to this or that city, spend a year there, carry on business and make money.” 14 Why, you do not even know what will happen tomorrow. What is your life? You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes. 15 Instead, you ought to say, “If it is the Lord’s will, we will live and do this or that.”

THE WILL OF GOD

DETOX

For many, many years now, my first resolution each morning is to attach myself to nothing but the will of God alone. I have learned that the will of God is the love of God. Any by the outpouring of His grace I have so merged my will with His that whatever He wills, I will too. Therefore, I have always been happy.”

The words of a homeless man, qtd. in “In Jesus We Trust”

TRUST

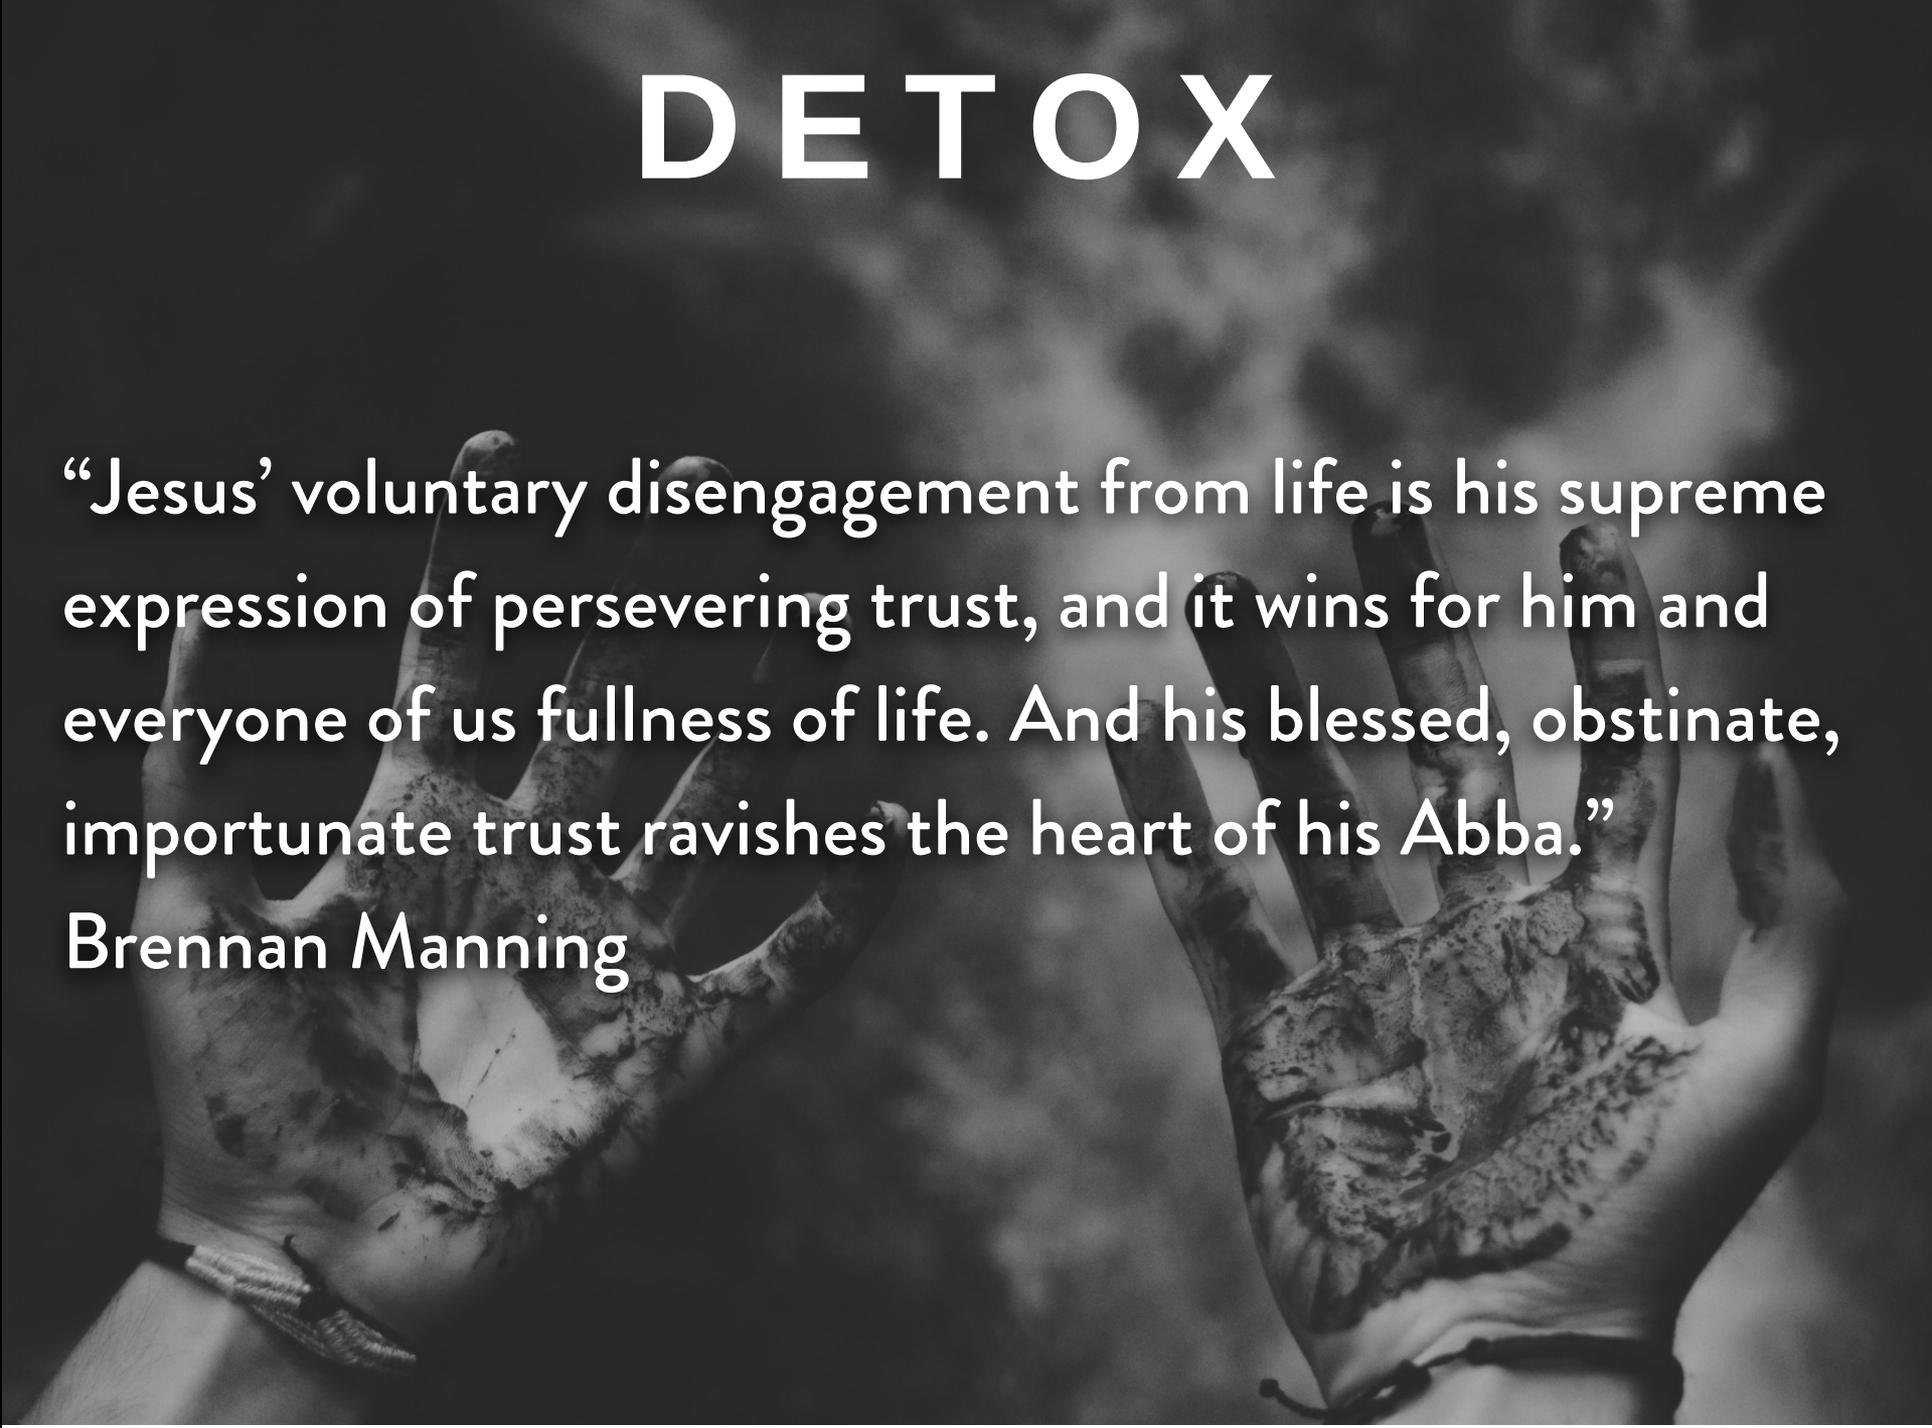

DETOX

"Father, if you are willing, take this cup from me; yet not my will, but yours be done."

Luke 22:42

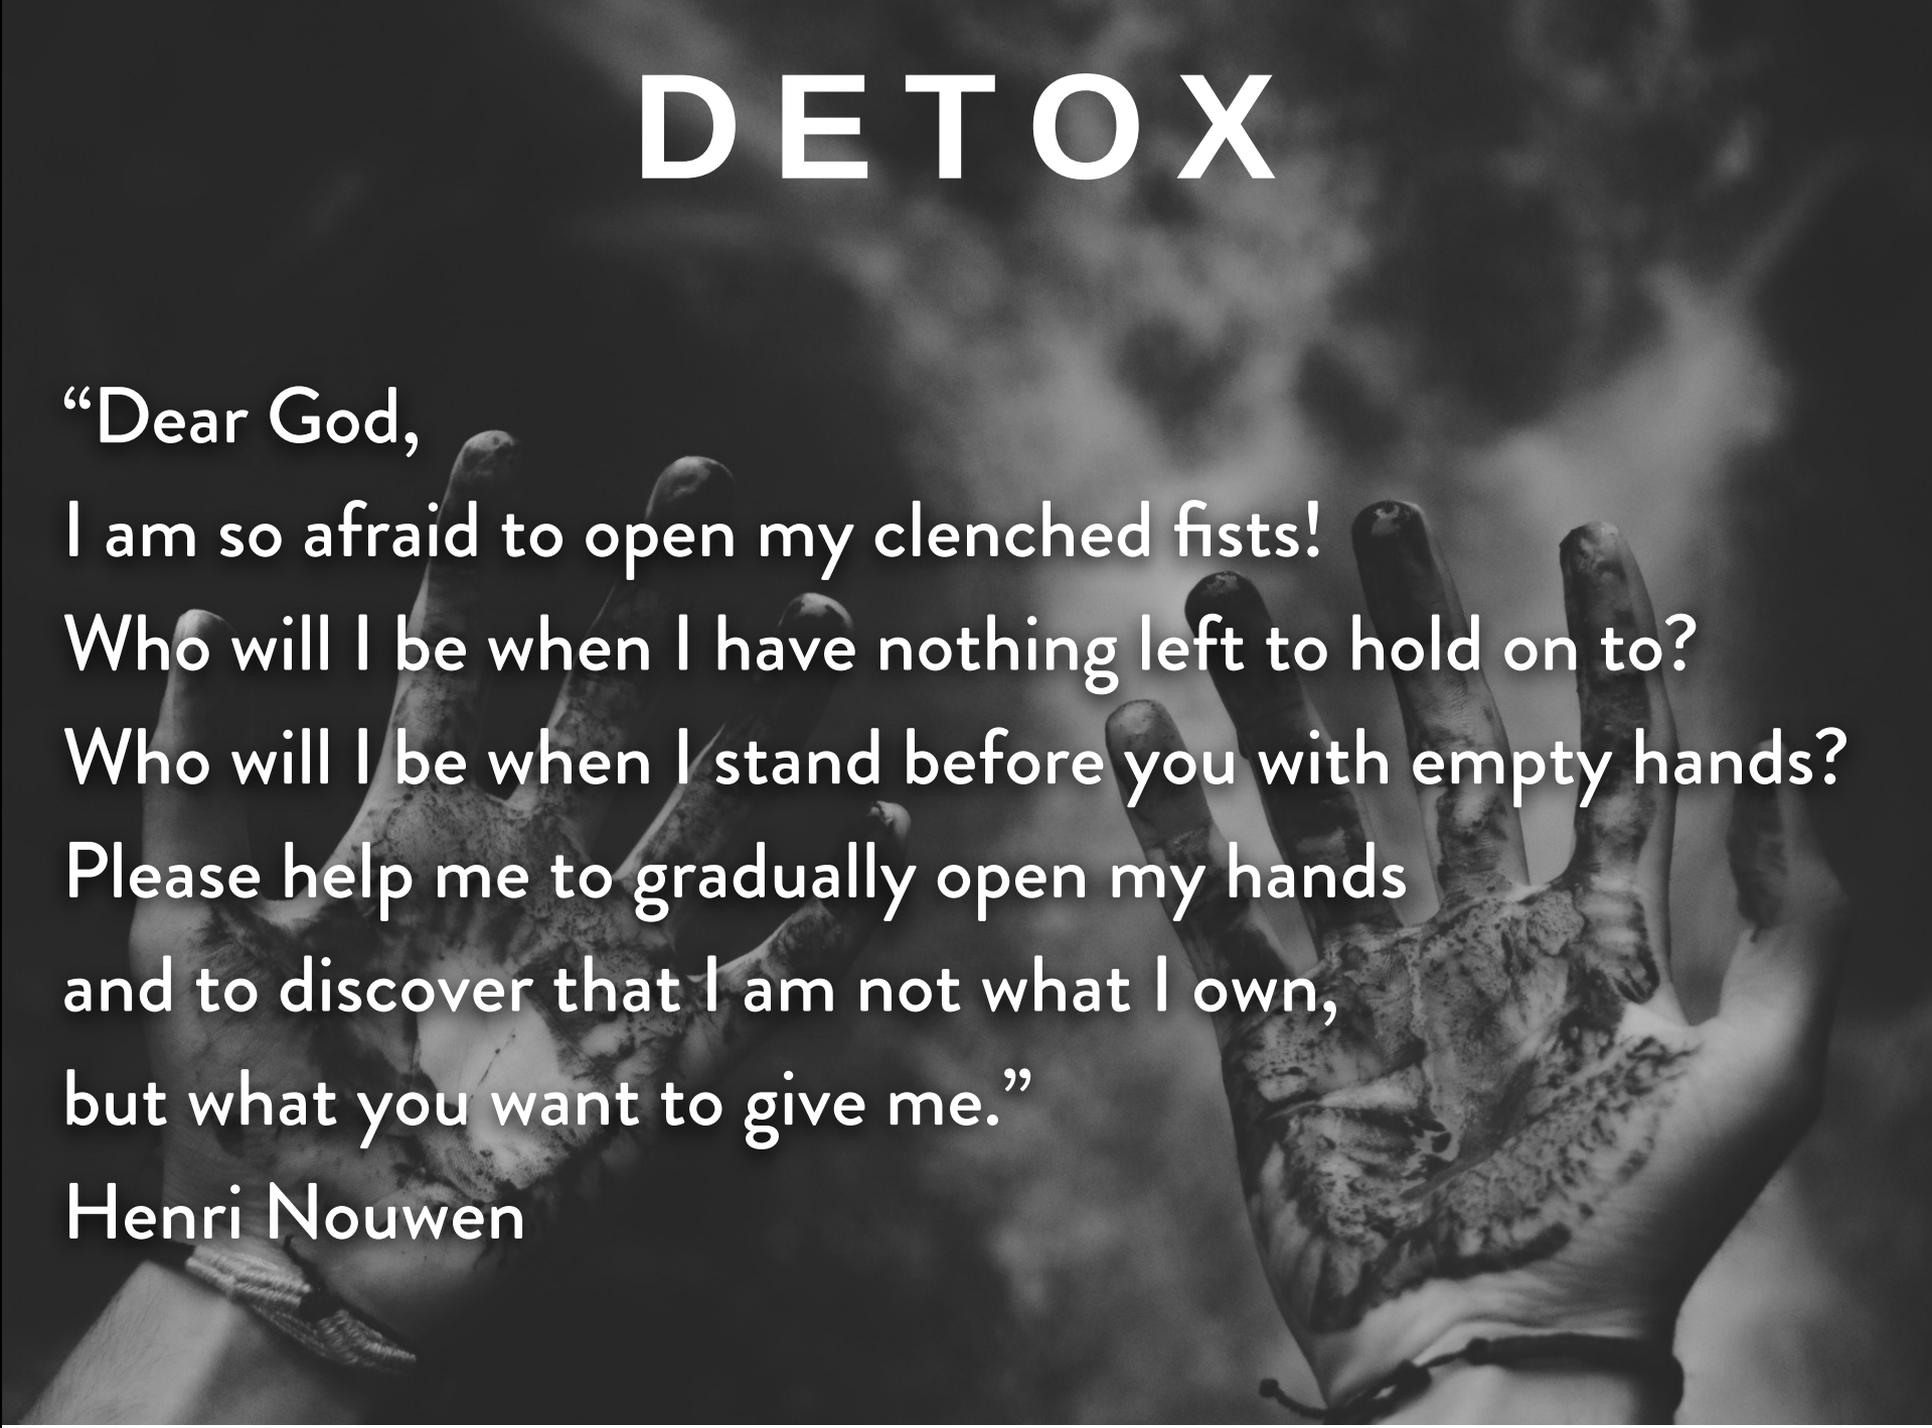

DETOX

“Jesus’ voluntary disengagement from life is his supreme expression of persevering trust, and it wins for him and everyone of us fullness of life. And his blessed, obstinate, importunate trust ravishes the heart of his Abba.”

DETOX

“Dear God,
I am so afraid to open my clenched fists!
Who will I be when I have nothing left to hold on to?
Who will I be when I stand before you with empty hands?
Please help me to gradually open my hands
and to discover that I am not what I own,
but what you want to give me.”
